D C A G

(And you) scream out your angry rage. You're out for harsh revenge.

Bm F#m G A

- Have you got the nerve - and do you deserve,

A C A

a whole wasted life so full of rage.

A D Bm G A

It's not hard to find - fury in your mind - call an alian - just a dump ape-man.

D Bm G A

You are near insane - you're yourself to blame- and some time ago - friends decided to go

Bm F#m

Everything you have spoken, all the friendships you've broken

G A D

leave behind a deep trace of emptiness

Bm F#m G A Bm

Then you see the fog rising - and it isn't surprising: There is no smiling face that stands your stress

D C A G

(And you) scream out your angry rage. You're out for harsh revenge.

Bm F#m G A

- Have you got the nerve - and do you deserve,

A C A

a whole wasted life so full of rage.

A D Bm G A

With your rage in mind - you will never find - a next goal to reach - or another beach.

D Bm G A

You will not extend - any open hand - think you're strong enough - and you feel so tough

Bm F#m

And you warn of the danger - coming straight from the strangers -

G A D

Yes, you feel that your nation soon will lose.

Bm F#m

When your soul fills with malice, you'll live in a black palace, desolated and hopeless, you can choose.

G A Bm

D C A G

But because you scream so much, nobody wants to be a friend with you.

G D C

And you don't want to be on your own any more.

G D C

And you really don't know what you are looking for.
